

知 What are the interactions of management frames during wireless terminal access?

Wireless 翁磊 2020-12-11 Published

Problem Description

What are the interactions of management frames during wireless terminal access?

Solution

The access process includes 4 steps, discovery, authentication, association, and data transmission. The first 3 steps are the interaction of management frames. The discovery process adopts two methods: the AP sends a Beacon frame and the terminal sends a Probe Request frame. The authentication process exchanges authentication messages, and the association process exchanges association messages.